

EMERGING MARKETS CLUB

We are Hiring

June 2022

Board Member – President

About the EMC

The Emerging Markets Club is a rapidly growing official students club at the University of St Gallen that counts more than 150 members. Our mission is to highlight contemporary challenges and stimulate discussion around the unique opportunities in Emerging Markets. By hosting a broad range of events, we connect our members directly with scholars, entrepreneurs, political leaders and artists.

Role Description

As the President of the Emerging Markets Club, you will be responsible for the overall success of the club, its members and its strategic development. Your challenge is to intermarry the diverse initiatives of the four departments by supporting and coordinating work streams to unlock the greatest possible performance for the participating HSG students. The role is challenging but also extremely rewarding. It offers an outstanding opportunity to contribute your vision for the direction of a topic-driven student initiative while advancing your leadership skills.

Your Tasks

- Managing and coordinating the four EMC teams (currently 14 team members)
- Lead strategic development projects (for example, partnerships & collaborations, member benefits, and campus presence)
- Establishment, implementation, and communication of internal organizational structures
- Hands-on targeted support of the individual teams on their projects
- External representation of the club and its interests to the university, other clubs, and third parties
- Administrative tasks, for example in relation to the SHSG

What you Bring with you

- First experience in the management of diverse teams including a sense of responsibility for each team member as well as high ethical standards
- A high level of commitment to your role throughout the semester, ideally the full academic year. The time investment can be up to 15h/week at peak times, averaging around 10h/week. Outgoing personality and finding joy in talking in front of an audience
- Interest in a broad range of topics related to emerging markets and ideally own touchpoints and experience to/with emerging markets
- A substantive vision for the program and development of the EMC

What you can Expect from the EMC Team

- An ambitious, mutually supportive team that enjoys working with you throughout the semester
- Open, stimulating atmosphere with exciting touchpoints to high-level guests and multiple stakeholders
